Q&A

Last time, we talked about joy. I have a question to see what you think.

Q: What is the summed up meaning of joy?

Email me with your answers and I will give you the correct answer next time.
(Email is under "Info")

Answer for last times question: A relationship with God that endures forever.

Teaching Point

Now that you have had a little fun, let's start on our next lesson, peace. What do you think of when some one says the word peace? _____

There were some pretty good answers there! Some examples could be: resting in a quiet room, reading, or just plain 'your brothers and sisters not bothering you.' God wants us to be peace makers for him. What is a peace maker? _____

Yes, it is something that usually involves three people, two people fighting about something, and one person who tries to make peace. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." - Matt. 5: 9 This verse is part of the beatitudes of when Jesus was preaching the Sermon on the Mount. You can read those verses in Matt. 5. But remember this. It is good to be a peace maker, but do not ever try to pick fights.

Cooking! Peppermint Candy Cookies

- 1 pouch (1 lb 1.5 oz) Betty Crocker® sugar cookie mix
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1 egg
- 1/4 cup Gold Medal® all-purpose flour
- 1 container (12 oz) Betty Crocker® Whipped fluffy white frosting
- 1 teaspoon peppermint extract
- Betty Crocker® red decorating sugar

Heat oven to 375°F. In large bowl, stir cookie mix, butter, egg and flour until dough forms. Roll dough into 1 1/4-inch balls. Place 2 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheet. Flatten slightly with bottom of glass. Bake 8 to 10 minutes or until edges are light golden brown. Cool 1 minute; remove from cookie sheet to wire rack. Cool completely, about 20 minutes. In small bowl, mix frosting and peppermint extract. Spread each cookie with frosting. Using small spoon, sprinkle red sugar onto cookies in spiral design to look like peppermint candies. From Betty Crocker.com

Craft: A Christmas Card

- Paper (white)
- Ribbon
- A winter picture
- Pen/Pencil

Okay, so it is time to use your creativity! Fold the paper in half. Glue a strip of ribbon on the card for decoration. Then glue a winter picture onto the front of the card. Write "Merry Christmas" or "Happy Holidays" on it. Then write a personalized message on the inside.

Testimony Time

When I was at home, I felt very sad and was convicted of my sins. I went up to my mom's bedroom and laid on the bed crying. I started to pray to God that he would save me. He did. I joined the church about a year after that. - Charlee D.
