Answer for last times question: A relationship with God that endures forever.

 Teaching Point
Let's get started on our next Bible study. It is on meekness. Here is a verse for you to look up. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Matthew 5:5</li> </ul> Here is what a tool on Sword searcher tells us what it means. - Blessed are the meek - They that hold all their passions and affections evenly balanced. They shall inherit	the earth - They shall have all things really necessary for life and godliness. They shall enjoy whatever portion God hath given them here, and shall hereafter possess the new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. So what does meekness mean? In the 1828 Webster's Dictionary it says - "Being mild of heart and soul." So the meaning of what the fullness of that verse means is this: Some one who is
	mild of heart, and receives the necessities of life and godliness. That is how we should be while we are before the Lord. To be humble towards him. Do not be prideful in your prayers and thoughts.
