Introduction

Hello! This is Grace, the author of "Girl's Mini Ministries." The newsletter topic this month is gentleness. There will be a Chapter/Verse of the Month, Puzzle Time, Memory Verse, Q&A, Teaching Point, a recipe, and a craft.

Thanks for all the support you give me for writing this newsletter. Please spread the word to your friends. All of those who could contribute to "Testimony Time" would be greatly appreciated.

There are also opportunities for you to publish some of your stuff too! If you have a certain verse on your heart, a certain puzzle you want to share, ask a question, write an article, have a craft, or a recipe, please contact me at pianogirl@gci.net. I also have a "leave a comment" area on my dad's page (the website above) that you can write on too. I look forward to getting ideas from you. See you soon!

Verse of the Month

John 10: 11-14 - "I am the good shepherd : the good shepherd gives his life for his sheep. But a hired person, who is not the shepherd, sees the wolf and flees, and leaves the sheep behind, and the wolf catches them. The hired person does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know them, and they know me."

Q & A

Q & A

Last month, we talked about faith. I have a question to see what you think.

Q: What is the meaning of faith?

Email me with your answers and I will give you the correct answer next time. (Email is on the front page)

Last month's answer: Love is an expression of care.

Teaching Point

Welcome to our next Bible study on gentleness. You know, gentleness can be part of your daily life. Not fighting with a brother or sister (if you have one), or being kind to your neighbors. Gentleness is our topic for this month. Jesus uses an example of being a shepherd in a parable. It explains how he protects his “sheep” from harm. The “sheep” are people. He then also explains what a hired person would do if he saw a “wolf” coming. The hired person would flee. Jesus added that the shepherd would not flee but fight the wolf and die for his “sheep” if he had to. This teaches us that he loves all of us even though you do wrong. Jesus was an excellent example of being gentle and loving. How will you be gentle to your brothers or sisters, your parents, or your neighbors today?

Testimony Time:

I got saved on March 22, 2009. This was the best day of my life. I had been lost for 5 years. One day in church my Nana came to me and asked me if I needed to pray. I said yes. I went to the altar to pray but little did I know that I had gotten saved the Sunday before when I prayed then. I didn't pray long till I realized that. I got baptized on April 19, 2009.

Cooking: Resurrection Cookies

- 1 cup of whole pecans
- 1 teaspoon vinegar
- 3 egg whites
- A pinch of salt
- 1 cup of sugar
- A Ziploc bag
- 1 wooden spoon
- Scotch tape
- Bible

To get the rest of the recipe go to:

<http://www.annieshomepage.com/resurrectioncookies.html>

This recipe reminds us that Jesus not only died for us, but he rose again for us too.

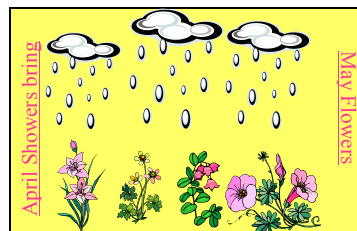

Craft: April Showers Bring May flowers

This craft is about a phrase that was written.

Supplies:

- Colored Paper
- Colored Pencils
- Pen
- Glue

Get a piece of light colored paper. Draw a rain cloud with rain coming out of it. Draw flowers at the bottom of the page. At either the top or the sides write, “April Showers Bring May Flowers”. Enjoy!
